Wyoming SBDC celebrating 10 years-

In July 1994, the Wyoming Small Business Development Center was reorganized and is supported through a partnership with the University of Wyoming, the US Small Business Administration and the Wyoming Business Council. During the past decade, the SBDC has served more than 20,000 clients. SBDC entrepreneurs and small businesses have injected $96,261,417 in capital to Wyoming's economy from 1995-2003. Our 10-year celebration theme is: "For 10 years...inventing tomorrow by serving Wyoming businesses today."

In celebration of 10 years, we bring you this symposium--SEE Your Future. This symposium will address sustainability as it applies to you, your business and your community as we move into Wyoming's future.

SEE Your Future Featured Speakers-

Since 1990, John Renesch has been speaking and writing about the tremendous possibility for marrying business and social transformation to achieve a better future for people, organizations and communities. He's a champion of the human spirit in business and a cheerleader for the power of conscious intentionality in business life and work in general. His latest book is Getting to the Better Future: A Matter of Conscious Choosing.

Wisdom Works speaker Renee

Moorefield is Founder of Wisdom Works and co-author of Driven By Wellth: The 7 Essentials for Healthy, Sustainable Results in 21st Century Business and Leadership.

Her professional passion is cultivating the new breed of progressive business emerging in the 21st century and the new breed of leader required to lead them.

Wisdom Works

promotes progressive thinking and practices for sustainable business success.

New Belgium Brewery (NBB) located in Fort Collins, is a fully wind-powered craft brewery distributing throughout the western U.S. As the 5th largest craft brewery in the country, expansion and growth is a reality for New Belgium, so they have made the commitment to grow in a sustainable fashion. From basement conception to the current facility that produces upward of 300,000 barrels of beer, New Belgium has never lost focus on their commitment to environmental stewardship, as stated in their core values and beliefs: minimizing resource consumption, maximizing energy efficiency and recycling.

Killary Mizia with NBB will present their sustainability practices and what that means to their clients, their community and to the rest of us.

SEE Your Future

is sponsored by the Small Business Development Center
in partnership with

UW College of Business &
William D. Ruckelshaus Institute & the School of Environment and Natural Resources

Michael Shuman, an attorney and economist, is Vice President for Enterprise Development for the Training & Development Corporation (TDC) of Bucksport, Maine. He has written, co-written, or edited six books, including most recently, Going Local: Creating Self-Reliant Communities in the Global Age. He has written over a hundred articles for periodicals like The Washington Post, The Weekly Standard, Parade, New York Times. Shuman also has appeared on numerous television and radio shows, such as the Lehrer News Hour and NPR's "Talk of the Nation," and "All Thing's Considered."

Directly following the symposium, a reception to celebrate the SBDC's 10-year anniversary will be held for conference participants and attendees for the Venture West quarterly meeting which will begin at 5:30 pm in the same location (Union Ballroom). Michael Shuman is one of the featured speakers for the evening.
